Public transportation in the Tosa Reihoku area—such as trains and buses—is limited and not suitable for flexible travel. The most convenient way to explore the region is by rental car or bicycle.

Please note that the area is mountainous, with many steep hills and narrow roads. We recommend renting a compact car rather than a large vehicle.

If you are not confident in your driving skills, it may be best to avoid driving in this area.

Tosa Akaushi Wagyu

Tosa Akaushi is a rare and highly prized wagyu variety known for its rich umami flavor and perfect balance of lean meat and delicate marbling. With its light yet flavorful taste, it's especially appealing to those who prefer a less fatty cut of wagyu.

Hachikin Jidori Chicken

A premium free-range chicken descended from gamefowl, Hachikin Jidori is known for its slightly firm texture and rich, savory flavor. Enjoy it at local restaurants, or buy it at roadside stations and "Yui no Sato" in Okawa Village for a BBQ at a campsite or in a private rental.

Okawa Kuroushi Wagyu

Raised only in Okawa Village, this wagyu is even rarer than Tosa Akaushi wagyu, prized for its tender texture and refined, flavorful marbling. Carefully nurtured in the village's lush highland environment, it can be savored at restaurants within Okawa.

Sake, Shochu & Doburoku

Tosa Reihoku is also known for its distinctive drinks made from locally grown rice. Enjoy the renowned sake Keigetsu, rice shochu brewed with premium Tosa Tenku no Sato rice, and Teru, a doburoku that has been awarded Japan's top honor.

Kamizeki Amidado Hall Dedication Sumo

(Motoyama Town, August 14)

This powerful sumo event, open to both men and women, began in the late Edo period when an epidemic and poor harvest struck the region. To pray for recovery and a good harvest, a local sumo champion offered a ceremonial bout, giving rise to the tradition that continues today.

Minagawa Hyakumanben Festival

(Tosa Town, around July)

Praying for harvests, health, and safety, participants carry a 30-meter rosary around the dance hall to the sound of drums. The highlight comes when the rosary is cut apart and men surge into the shrine grounds in an energetic finale.

Hanatori Tachi Odori Sword Dance

(Okawa Village, performed at local events)

Said to have been started in the medieval era by local lord Oyabu Kiino-kami, this tradition features three performances: the sword dance, the naginata dance, and the hand dance. Today it is presented at events in Okawa Village.

Iwahara & Nagafuchi Kagura

(Otoyo Town, around October)

This unique kagura (a type of traditional Shinto ritual dance) has been performed for over 1,000 years. Following a ceremonial feast with a Shinto priest, dancers in white robes perform traditional rituals. It is designated as an Important Intangible Folk Cultural Property of Japan.
